SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The DVD Chopper is classified as:

Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The DVD contains a feature originally examined and classified as a 35mm film by the Office of Film and Literature Classification. The classification on that occasion restricted the availability of the publication to persons who had attained the age of 18 years and for the purpose of screening at the New Zealand Film Festival 2000. The film was subsequently submitted for reconsideration of the earlier decision and reclassified as "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years", with the descriptive note "Contains graphic violence, drug use and offensive language". This classification was registered on 19 January 2001 (OFLC Publication Reference No. 2163).

The DVD has a number of additional components, including a trailer for the feature, deleted scenes, interview material and audio commentaries by the director and by Mark Read, whose life is the basis for the film's story. These other components give some context to the feature but do not provide grounds for altering the classification previously given to the publication in other formats.
